Brief Description

Employee share based incentives is proven to be one of the most effective remuneration vehicles to retain, motivate and attract talents and executives. Read the annual reports of blue chips and you will see that many senior executives are receiving shares instead of cash bonus nowadays. And in fact, many companies in Hong Kong and mainland China were following a trend in the United States and Europe and awarding shares rather than just cash. In this seminar, Mr. Jonathan Lee will cover:

- Popular types of employee share incentive schemes in Hong Kong
- Trending of share incentive scheme adopted in Hong Kong listing market
- Common scheme framework analysis
- Plan execution considerations
